Webinars about Digital Collaboration

Our upcoming webinars

Here at //SEIBERT/MEDIA, we hold webinars with different experts, partners or colleagues regularly and talk about a variety of different fields of knowledge. The webinars are streamed via Google Hangouts so that everyone who is interested has the opportunity to actively take part and ask questions. See an overview of all of our upcoming webinars below.

Did you miss a webinar, are you interested in a certain topic or do you want to get an overview of our webinars? In our archive, you can find all of our past webinars and additional information.
